Dear, Joseph J. Farman Jr.,

I called John Barry and asked him to call Super Fresh, and ask them if I can have my job back and I would drop the case. John Barry told me that if I lost the case, I would be responsible for Super Fresh's lawyers fees. All I want is my job back and Rich Elliot transfer to another store, the man that harassed me, and caused me to go out on stress and ~~and~~ ~~some~~ anxiety leave. I never heard from John Barry, I called him several times after I called him to see if he called Super-Fresh, he would call and leave a message on the answer-machine that he was returning my call, and not what I wanted to know. I am on medicade, and foodstamps, and have no money coming in. My dad passed away Friday July the 13th 07. Now I have to worry about paying my bills on my own. I don't think my health will handle a trial especially without legal defence, I can't afford a lawyer. I have high Blood pressure and (anxiety and depression) caused by the job and other things because I don't have my job. I have a doc. appointment on Aug 13, 07 with a new doc. I went into detox on July 25, 07, haven't drank since. My nerves are getting worse working about bills, kids B. days, Holidays and not having any money, I would not be going thru this if I had my job, if I wasn't harassed by Rich Elliot I know it isn't the ~~alt~~ use causing it which John Barry thinks. I am waking up throwing up again working about not having any money because I don't have my job. I would not have these problems if I was still working at Super Fresh, I been there for five years, until I got married and had a baby and the harassment started.
